

American Humanist Association
AND
American Ethical Union

ANNOUNCE

A BRIEFING TO WHICH ALL NGOS ARE INVITED

Thursday, June 1st in the Dag Hammarskjöld Auditorium 10 AM to 12 Noon

Speaking will be Ambassadors or Representatives from five of the nations which attended the Group of 77 South Summit Conference that took place in Havana, Cuba in April.

The Nations represented will be Nigeria, Bangladesh, Cuba, South Africa, and Algeria. All are vitally involved and working toward improving the conditions in all of the developing nations, as well as the burden of debt.

Come learn about their new southern solidarity and their ideas and recommendations for a much more Humanistic and equitable global development.

Don't miss this exciting presentation which is an answer to Secretary General Kofi Annan's call for Global Development with a Human Face.

Please call (914) 588-5284 by May 25th regarding arrangements for un-credentialed persons who would like to attend.