Greetings Fellow Humanists!

Let's get together on Friday the Thirteenth and talk! We can start with superstition and carry on to wherever our interests take us. This will be our do-it-yourself meeting with you supplying your own speaker, so bring ideas and materials to share. How about your poetry? A letter to the editor/president? Essays or a passage from your favorite book? What ever happened to philosophy anyway? Is Humanism making any headway? Let's have a good lively discussion!

WHAT:	Either a Lunch or Dinner get-together, whichever fits your schedule. If you can't make it early...then come later. The first place cannot accommodate us for dinner.
WHEN:	Friday, December 13th from noon until 4pm (Lunch) or 4pm to 8pm (Dinner).
WHERE:	The Olde Garden Restaurant, 15 West 29th Street (532-8323) (Lunch). The Nader Restaurant - Park Avenue, 48 East 29th Street (683-4833) (Dinner).
COST:	Order from the menu...we're all on our own. The Nader has Iranian food.

Attend a special showing of Cuban art and crafts and learn what's going on in Cuba today from Sandra Levinson, Director of the Center for Cuban Studies. Ms. Levinson leads travel groups to Cuba and is a personal friend of President Fidel Castro. She made the special arrangements for Corliss Lamont to meet with Fidel in 1993. This will be an informal discussion where all questions are welcome. Ms. Levinson traditionally organizes a gala New Year's Celebration in Havana and no doubt will extend an invitation for you to join the adventure.

WHAT:	Showing of Cuban art and crafts with information on Cuba today
WHEN:	Wednesday, December 17th from 6pm to 9pm. (914-588-5282 for info.)
WHERE:	Metro Book & Print Gallery, 123 West 18th Street, 4th Floor, (Call the Center for Cuban Studies at 242-0559 for info.)
COST:	All items are for sale, including Cuban sandwiches. Complementary refreshments will be served. Hope to see you there!

May this season which is filled with memories, some joyous...some grievous, nestle lightly in your heart right beside your impulse to make things a little better...a little happier for someone...somewhere...in this less than perfect world. May you have a MERRY SOLSTICE AND A HAPPIER NEW YEAR!

Best wishes. From Sala Farber & Beth Lamont,

Program Coordinators.
