

July 21, 1997

Greetings Fellow Humanists & Friends!

Come to a Humanist Dialogue Dinner this Monday night, July 28, to hear and discuss whether school prayer is pedagogically defensible (or defensible at all). D.S. Klein, retired after 25 years of teaching in the New York City public school system, rather doubts it and says that there is no evidence to support it. Find out why and participate in a question and answer period as well. What is your point-of-view?

We'll meet as usual at 6pm at the Sichuan Palace Restaurant, 310 East 44th Street, between First and Second Avenues.

To make your reservation, please call the Humanist office at (212) 687-2477 and leave information on the recorder. Let us know how many will be in your party and the dinner preference of beef, chicken, or vegetable. Dinner, including tax and tip, is $17.50.

See you there!

Best wishes, Beth K. Lamont, Program Coordinator.

P.S. Long-awaited Humanist Society of Metropolitan New York membership cards will be distributed at the meeting!