Solstice Greetings to Fellow Humanists and Friends!

Tuesday December 22 at 6:30pm at the Sichuan Palace Restaurant, 310 East 44th Street between 1st & 2nd Avenues. We will gather to enjoy each other's company over a festive family-style Chinese dinner. Let's drink a toast to more Humanistic tomorrows! Please plan to share your vision or hope for the future, or perhaps make a prediction or resolution for the new year. Please bring topics and information for discussion. A formal presentation is planned also:

Dr. Linda Longmire will speak on “Noam Chomsky: From Linguistics to Political Analysis.” Dr. Longmire is an Associate Professor of Political Science at New College of Hofstra University, where she teaches courses in political theory, international relations, women's studies and American politics.

The Chapter will welcome at this time a new President, Dr. Thomas Riggins, who teaches the History of Philosophy at the New School for Social Research and at New York University. He was active in the Civil Rights Movement and was involved with Students for a Democratic Society. He is heartily approved by the Humanist Society of Metropolitan New York Board of Directors.

Please call (212) 687-2477 to leave a message if you plan to attend the Solstice Meeting.
Best wishes, Beth K. Lamont (914) 588-5284
