

AMERICAN HUMANIST ASSOCIATION (AHA)

AND

AMERICAN ETHICAL UNION (AEU)

ARE CO-HOSTING TO PRESENT,

under the gracious sponsorship of the Bangladesh Mission to the UN,

A Briefing on the G77 South Summit of April, 2000 in Havana, Cuba

Taking place on Thursday, June 1, 2000 from 10 am to 12 noon in the Dag Hammarskjold Auditorium at the United Nations

We welcome you to this special occasion!

Speakers will be:

Ambassador Arthur Mbanefo, Permanent Representative of the Nigerian Mission to the UN, and Chairman of the Group of 77

Ambassador Bruno Rodriguez Parrilla, Permanent
Representative of the Cuban Mission to the UN, and host for the G77
South Summit in Havana

Ambassador Anwarul Chowdhury, Permanent Representative of the Bangladeshi Mission to the UN, and Coordinator of the Least Developed Nations (LDN)

Mr. Sephethe Sibeko, a Representative of the South African Mission to the UN, who graciously agreed to speak in the absence of Ambassador Kamalo

Introducer & Moderator role shared by:

Martha Gallahue of AEU & Beth Lamont of AHA

Please note:

After the formal presentation your response/participation is invited. Hand-held microphones will be circulating. If you wish to be heard just raise your hand. This is a friendly forum for the purpose of sharing information about the G77. Critical political statements are not appropriate. Please observe this protocol and limit your respectful statements/questions to one minute or less. Thank you.

Please help yourself to all flyers and literature in the lobby. If you would like more information about the Group of 77, go to their Web site at <http://www.g77.org/>.

Information about the AHA can be found at <http://humanist.net/>.

Information about the AEU can be found at <http://www.aeu.org/>.

Thank you for attending this briefing.